

NUI Galway Entrances

University Road Entrance

Arriving in Galway on the main N6, follow signs for the N59 (Galway-Oughterard/Clifden), crossing the River Corrib at the Quincentennial Bridge. Immediately after the Quincentennial Bridge, take a left turn at the traffic light controlled crossroads and follow the signs for city centre/University/Hospital. Continue through three sets of traffic lights (approx. 1km) to large junction with University Hospital on the right. Take filter lane to the left onto University Road and the main entrance to NUI Galway is approximately 100m from this junction on the left-hand side.

Newcastle Road Entrance

Upper Newcastle Entrance

Arriving in Galway on the main N6, follow signs for the N59 (Galway-Oughterard/Clifden), crossing the River Corrib at the Quincentennial Bridge. Go through the traffic lights and take exit 5 at the next roundabout (bringing you back towards the Quincentennial Bridge). Take a left turn at the traffic lights. The Upper Newcastle entrance is the first right.

Parking on Campus

There is limited parking for conference delegates on campus, Monday to Friday from 8.30 to 17.30, and it is recommended that you take a taxi to the venue if possible. Permits are arranged for conferences to facilitate access to the Park & Ride Car Park. Contact the conference organiser for a permit for your conference. There are also a number of pay and display parking areas on campus.

Access is available to all car parks evenings (after 17.30) and weekends.

All illegally parked vehicles, including cars, not displaying a permit will be clamped.
